TRG Conference

Harry Horn was recently asked to present at the Resource Group which consists of the top 200 planners in the country. Harry eloquently reflected on his career beginning by serving in the Army and eventually transitioning to working with Lincoln and Forming Academy Financial Inc.

Harry has dedicated his working career to helping clients improve their financial planning to make the most of their time with their families. Harry continues this philosophy within Academy to help Planners and team members grow professionally and personally.

We are honored to have Harry as a partner, mentor and friend to all of us.
